Mayor's Report April 8, 2010

March 31, 2010 Wage & Salary Meeting

Met with representatives of the Police Association in contract negotiations, will need to meet again with Wage & Salary committee before submitting a draft proposal to Council. Date pending for that meeting

Youth Gun Safety Classes

Met multiple times with Wayne Blank to prepare grant for guns and equipment, so Luna Pier can sponsor our own gun safety classes for young people. Grant is complete and submitted. The Luna Pier Business Association will be sponsoring the grant and program. We have also received verbal commitments from American Legion Post to subsidize Luna Pier youths fees for classes.

Consumer's

Missed meeting with Consumer's on April 5, 2010 due to illness

RoadSoft Training, partial training due to software problems. DBA is available for further support as needed

Department Head Meetings

Met with Police Chief for updates

Met with Fire Chief for updates

Substance Abuse Policy

Overviewed City's drug free policy mandated as part of the USDA loans and really will be essential to have in place for all federal issues. A review and organization of all work policies needs to be addressed in the future. A task for the City Services and Employee Relations Committee.

Future Meetings:

Wedding party for a May 1st Wedding

Bob Kneisely from Point Place Business Association about cooperative efforts
