- Kids Day preparations for August 29th
- Newsletter preparations, this will be a large edition with summer events and Kid's Day information. Please get your information to Mary Larrow or Beth Mooney by July 21st.
- Met with Rick Murray; City maintenance issues and set a date in November to have a wage and salary meeting to start contract negotiations.
- A "Discovery Meeting" has been set for September 9, 2009 between; the CEO of Jet Express, Chris the owner of the water limo service, Dr. Drewyor from Mason and the Hub Committee, members concerning bring ferry service to Luna Pier.
- Freedom Celebration; large crowds with a few minor issues, but need to consider increasing the patrol so our own Police force can patrol the community during the fireworks as there were incidents of break-ins. Over all it was a great success.
- JAWS Program came Sunday July 5th to assist with the clean up after the Freedom Celebration and they also trimmed and hedged the West side of First Street Park. They will return in a week or two to work on the East side of First St Park. Also have others in need of Community service hours who will be weeding, painting and completing projects around the City.
- Reworking Ethic Policy to ready for first reading
- Meeting with Dr. Chappello set a sale/leaseback transaction.
